There is no possible limit to our na-tional degradation, once this country shall have decided to adopt the mon-stary standard that has made such con-spicuously civilized nations of Greece and Turkey. "What's the matter with spicuously civilized nations of Greece and Turkey, anyway?"

It would also be pleasing to learn when Russia adopted the silver standard. But granted that she has, she need fear no comparison with such gold standard nations as Spain and Turkey and Greece and Italy.

Statistics show that under either or both standards there are unhappy trade conditions and an absence of higher civilization. They also show that those nations are most prosperous in which the volume of legal tender coin in circulation is greatest and growing. France is an illustration. Greece also is an illustration. Greece also is an illustration. Greece also is an illustration. With a total circulating medium per capita of $20.58, $19.06 is of apper. The South American states have a per capita circulating medium of $17.22, of which amount $15.25 is paper. But four governmental sections of the world exceed the United States in the use of paper as money—Greece, the South American states, Portugal and Camada. Of this pleasant list of associates all have gold standards save the South American states, and of these gold standard countries, the 'United States and the South American states, and of these gold standard countries, the 'United States and the South American states, and of these gold standard countries, the 'United States and the South American states have gold standards save the South American states, and the upper promenade are freed of fairy books and realms of enchantment. Says the New York World:

Can any dollar be too good for the man whose entire capital is his daily wage and his scant savings?

No dollar can be too good. But it can be so good that "the man whose entire capital is his daily wage and scant savings" cannot get it. That is what troubles the workingman about the gold dollar—and the silver dollar, too, for that matter.

RECEIVER WANTED.

For the James-Spencer-Bateman Company.

The Olympia was opened last November and it is the largest building in this country devoted exclusively to amusements. It comprises a roof garand Manufacturing company for the appointment of a receiver for the $2,500,000. James - Spencer - Bateman company came up for further arguments before Judge Ritchie, with Attorney N. W. Sonnedecker appearing for the petition-ers and Judge Young for the assignee, George H Horne and the defendant company.

The James-Spencer-Bateman company assigned to Mr. Horne on June 27 last. The pestitioners alleged that the defendant company owed them $1,009.77; that the assignee, Horne, is inexpertant that the assignee, Horne, is inexpertant that the hand been buried lenced and not qualified to wind up the estate to the best advantage of the creditors and that the petitioner, unless a receiver is appointed, will be hindered, delayed and defrauded out of the peyment of his claim.

It is therefore prayed that the deed of assignment be set aside and that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the assests of the firm.

After the arruments his honor took the matter under advisement.

FARMS VS. CITIES.

You come to us and tell us that the great cities are in favor of the gold standard. I favor of the gold standard. I tell you that the great cities rest upon these broad and fertile prairies. Burn down your cities and leave our farms, and your cities will spring up again as if by magic. But destroy our farms, and the grass will grow in the streets of every city in this streets of every city country. - William J Jennings
